Dear Patrons and Friends:

In getting out this, my annual catalogue and price list, I have endeavored to take into consideration the fact that the conditions as to employment, etc., are not of the best, and have reduced the prices in this list accordingly.

All stock is guaranteed true to name and of good growing quality.

Thanking you for past favors and a continuance of the same, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

W. D. HATHAWAY.

Order Early

It is well to order early as the demand for many of the varieties often exceeds the supply.

Terms

Cash with order or in advance of shipment. All orders paid for before shipment are sent prepaid.

Green Plants

I make a specialty of growing Green Plants, which with proper care will produce better blossoms than plants grown from tubers. Plants shipped any time after May 15th. Full directions for planting sent with each order.

New Varieties for 1933

Supreme Masterpiece (F. Dec.)—The flowers of this variety are very large and are borne on long, stiff stems well out from the foliage. The plant is of dwarf branching habit, and a free bloomer all season. The color is oriental buff with salmon pink shadings, reverse of petals shaded carmine. This variety at the R. I. Horticultural Show held at Providence, R. I. in 1932 won first prize in the seedling class. Roots $7.50. Plants $3.75.

Supreme Triumph (Dec.)—This is an extra large dahlia of a beautiful shade of crimson maroon. The plants are medium tall and bloom continually till frost, with flowers on long excellent stems. Roots $3.00. Plants $1.50.

Supreme Sunset (Semi-Cac.) — A real beauty of a flower, it has all the colors of a golden sunset; the flowers are borne on long stems, well out from the foliage. A fine cut flower variety. Roots $2.00. Plants $1.00.
